

Aardvark Music
Music. Community. Opportunity

Code of Conduct

Aardvark Music is based on the values such as inclusion, participation, support, understanding and respect. When becoming a member of the Aardvark Music community we ask that you abide by the Aardvark values. Please read and sign this agreement for entry into the program. Failure to uphold the Aardvark Music agreement may result in disciplinary action.

- I understand that being in Aardvark Music means that I am expected to uphold the Aardvark values including, support, inclusion, understanding and respect and the group guidelines that are developed with my group.
- I will ask for help and can take time out whenever I need it.
- If another Aardvarkian treats me in a manner that is hurtful or disrespectful in any way I will contact Aardvark Music Staff or an Aardvark youth mentor who can then contact the staff.
- I understand that all Aardvark Music sessions and events are non-smoking, alcohol-free and drug-free (prescribed medication excepted) and agree not to bring any such items to any sessions or events.
- I agree that I need to behave in a respectful manner towards my fellow Aardvarkians, staff and myself at all times.
- I understand Aardvark Staff are not available after hours. If I contact them they will get back to me as soon as possible or on the next working day.
- Social media: I will use social media appropriately and not post offensive or inappropriate material in any Aardvark Music groups.
- I will respect other Aardvarkians choice if they do not want to engage in chatting over social media with me.
- If I am treated unfairly by another Aardvarkian over social media or at an event then I will contact Aardvark Music Staff.
- I understand that any behaviour deemed to be inappropriate will be addressed by the Aardvark Music program staff. Continuing unacceptable behaviour will result in possible discharge from the program.
- I will respect that everyone is different and has different personal space boundaries.
